

PROPOSED TOPICS FOR MODULE ONE ON COMMUNITY MEDICINE

| Day | Subject | Theory | Practical/Application | Resource Person/s |
|------------|------------------------|--|---|--------------------------|
| 1 | The Community | Understanding the Community: What is it and how can it be understood? | Demonstration/participation in methods/exercises to know the community and community issues | |
| 2 | Community Health | Concept of Community Health and Models of Community health care: Context, Structure and Relevance | Studying the field to understand the practical implications of Community Health in the community. Exercises on Community Health care Models | |
| 3 | Public health | Concept and Practice of Public health. Current scenario of Public health in the country. | History of Homoeopathy in the context of Public health. Assessment of its strengths/weaknesses in the current context | |
| 4 | National Health Policy | The National Health Policy and the Role of the Community in its formulation, implementation and evaluation | Place of Homoeopathy in imparting thrust to Community health: The preventive and promotive aspects | |
| 5 | Community Medicine | Concept and Practice of Community medicine and the role of Homoeopath and Homoeopathy | The Homoeopathic Professional in Community Health Care: Development of Knowledge and Professional skills | |
| 6 | Research Methods | Research Methods relevant to the practice of Homoeopathic Community Medicine | Planning and programming of the Department of Community Medicine in Homoeopathic College/Hospital | |